Bishop of Gary Supports Call to Pray for U.S.

MERRILLVILLE – Most Reverend Robert J. McClory, Bishop of Gary, encourages our diocesan faithful to support the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in their urgent call to pray for our country.

Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), issued the following statement Wednesday in response to the violence in the United States Capitol:

“I join people of good will in condemning the violence (Wednesday) at the United States Capitol. This is not who we are as Americans. I am praying for members of Congress and Capitol staff and for the police and all those working to restore order and public safety.

“The peaceful transition of power is one of the hallmarks of this great nation. In this troubling moment, we must recommit ourselves to the values and principles of our democracy and come together as one nation under God. I entrust all of us to the heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. May she guide us in the ways of peace, and obtain for us wisdom and the grace of a true patriotism and love of country.”

The Diocese of Gary is home to more than 164,000 Roman Catholics in Lake, Porter, LaPorte and Starke counties in the northwest corner of Indiana.
